"Winter is the time for comfort, for good food and warmth, for the touch of a friendly hand and for a talk beside the fire: it is the time for home."

~ Edith Sitwell

The holiday season is underway and we hope you can find time to slow down and gather with friends and loved ones as the year comes to a close.

2023 WINTER WEEKENDS AT CAMP SANTANONI

We are so thrilled to announce the return of Winter Weekends at Camp Santanoni! During the three Winter Weekend events, cross-country skiers and snowshoers are able to go inside the gate lodge and main camp buildings and take interpretive tours with AARCH volunteers. The Artist's Studio, a stone building near the main camp on the shores of Newcomb Lake, will be open as a warming hut. Bring your own cup (or use one of ours!) and enjoy free coffee, tea, or hot chocolate by the woodstove. The Adirondack Interpretive Center will provide snowshoes at the Gate Lodge for any visitors without their own. These events are hosted by the Santanoni Partners: AARCH, the Department of Environmental Conservation and the Town of Newcomb.

2023 Winter Weekend Dates:

- January 14-16
- February 18-20
- March 11-12

Visit Great Camp Santanoni's Facebook page for more information on each event.

Call for Winter Weekend Volunteers!

Love Santanoni, talking with people, and don't mind some good honest work on a winter day? AARCH needs a few more volunteers for the February and March Winter Weekends! AARCH volunteers staff the Artist's Studio, which is heated with a woodstove, offer warm drinks to skiiers and snowshoers, and give tours of the main camp. Volunteers are limited to a small crew, who take responsibility as a team for operating the cabin safely, hauling water, splitting wood, serving visitors, acting as hosts, and interpreting the site. Interested in learning more? Please email santanoni@aarch.org to express your interest. Think snow!
