Summer Newsletter

Summer is in full swing at Santanoni!

Our 2018 summer staff, Theresa Moriarty, Mackenzie Machuga, and Ethan Adams, have been hard at work over the last month and a half. They've done a beautiful job preparing a space for the new farm model, working out at camp, and preparing their tours. Join them for free tours at Main Camp every day at 11, 1, and 3.

The July 14-15 farm weekend was a success – and a great opportunity to focus on one of the truly remarkable things about Camp Santanoni. No other great camp had such an extensive farm. If you missed it, mark your calendars for more tours on Labor Day Weekend!

Santanoni Canoe Tours

Participants attending the 10:30 and 12:30 tours will have the option of riding Newcombe Farm's horse-drawn wagon in to camp for an additional $30 fee. Register in advance online, by contacting Virginia@aarch.org, or call (518) 834-9328.

Volunteers Needed!
This week, we held the first of our very important farm landscape work days. The historic orchard, which recently became part of this year's historic area, is this year's primary focus. The next work days are August 22 and September 12. Interested in participating? Reach out to us at Santanoni@aarch.org.

Prefer to interact with visitors? We're also looking for volunteer docents! Join us at the Santanoni Gate Lodge on August 3 at 1 pm to learn more about opportunities to volunteer as Gate Lodge, Farm, or Camp hosts or participate in Santanoni Winter Weekends.

Special September Events

As the Adirondack summer comes to a close, we'll be ramping up our celebrations at Santanoni. On Labor Day weekend (September 1-3), we'll be holding special hourly tours at the farm and our regular tours at camp will have a celebratory twist. Newcomb's Teddy Roosevelt Weekend (September 15-16) is focusing on the 125th anniversary of Santanoni. Enjoy a bicycle trip or wagon ride into camp, where we'll have special anniversary tours and festivities.

We're so happy to count you among our Friends, and we'd love to see what you're up to! Share your photographs of your trips to Santanoni, your favorite spot along the road, or that spectacular sunset with us at the Camp Santanoni and Santanoni Preserve Facebook page. Let your friends know about the site, and encourage them to visit with you. Your visitation, donations to our preservation efforts, and love for the site are what will preserve Santanoni for another generation.

We look forward to seeing you again soon at Santanoni!

About Adirondack Architectural Heritage

Adirondack Architectural Heritage (AARCH) is the historic preservation non-profit organization for the Adirondack region. Since the early 1990s, Adirondack Architectural Heritage, along with NYSDEC and the Town of Newcomb, have worked to stabilize some of the major buildings at Camp Santanoni and provide interpretive services. In 1998, this partnership, along with the hundreds of others who love this special place, launched the Friends of Camp Santanoni to provide long-term financial and volunteer support for the camp.

Each summer, AARCH leads a robust series of tours across the Adirondack park of both private, public, and rarely-seen resources including great camps, prisons, islands, and hamlets. AARCH also advocates for the preservation of historic resources across the park, provides technical assistance, and helps connect owners of historic buildings to the information and resources they need, such as tax credits, grants, and local contractors. Visit AARCH.org for more information and to join us!
